

TARFF VALLEY LTD Fact Sheet

Established in 1903, Tarff Valley has 930 members and an annual turnover of around £38 million.

It supplies all inputs at competitive prices to local farmers and retails to the general public. The co-operative is locally owned with its board made up of farmers, which enables it to understand, and be responsive to, local needs.

In 2009, 91% of members responding to a survey agreed that they were “proud to be a member of Tarff Valley” and 90% said they could “always rely on Tarff to deliver a high quality service”.

Tarff Valley is a member of United Farmers, which buys on behalf of 20 co-ops, pooling their negotiating position.

What does co-operation mean to Tarff Valley?

“Working together for joint benefit and taking responsibility locally for the services that we need to succeed.”
